

WordStudio Workshops

We are excited to announce WordStudio, a series of writing workshops in Yamhill County, in connection with the 2016 Terroir Creative Writing Festival. These are consecutive, four-week workshops.

- Your Blog, Even Better*, Emily Grosvenor (Feb 29–Mar 28) not 3/21, Mondays, 6:30–8 pm, Flag and Wire Coffee in the Granary
- Life Writing: Introduction to Memoir*, Lisa Ohlen Harris, (April 12–May 3), Tuesdays, 6:30–8 pm, Location TBD
- Historical Fiction*, Samuel Snoek-Brown, Spring 2016 (Mar–Jun), Time and location TBD
- Flash Story*, Tandy Tillinghast, Spring (Mar–Jun), Wednesdays, 4–5:30 pm, Dates and location TBD
- Writing Poetry*, Barbara Drake, (Sept 7–28), Wednesdays, 4–5:30 pm, Location TBD
- Personal Essay: Connecting through Experience*, Heather Sharfeddin, (Oct 6–27), Thursdays, 6:30–8 pm, Location TBD

Registration Information:

Name: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

Please include your check for $ 75 for: Arts Alliance of Yamhill County to:
AAYC, WordStudio Registration, PO Box 898, McMinnville, Oregon, 97128

Locations include:

Velvet Monkey, Flag & Wire, R. Stuart Wine Bar, Remy Wines R Bar and the McMinnville Public Library Carnegie Room

Be on the lookout for a flyer soon to promote WordStudio, and if you haven't already, please follow the festival on Facebook at: <https://www.facebook.com/TerroirCreativeWritingFestival/>.

WordStudio seeks to make writing culture a public presence in Yamhill County. Thank you for all you do for writing. We are so excited to write with you!

Be well,

Tandy

Tillinghast-Voit

WordStudio Coordinator

Made possible through an Oregon Community Foundation grant

tillingt@wou.edu